Certified Horsemanship Association Shares Six New Safety Videos on YouTube; All are Available for Use on Websites or Social Media

(January 2016) – The Certified Horsemanship Association consistently produces educational information for its members and the public. During the 2015 CHA International Conference, six more videos were recorded to demonstrate safety and horsemanship topics. CHA has published all six videos, which run from 3-12 minutes, on CHA’s YouTube Channel at www.YouTube.com/CHAinstructor and at <http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/212/CHA-Horsemanship-Videos.html>. These videos are available for anyone to embed in websites or for use in social media for yourself, your clients, or your staff. CHA’s YouTube channel now features a total of 70 videos.

The topics of the videos include:

- How to Catch Your Horse in a Stall;
- How to Release Your Horse in a Stall;
- How to Catch Your Horse in a Paddock with Other Horses;
- How to Release Your Horse in a Paddock with Other Horses;
- When to Use and How to Tie Bowline Knots and Butterfly Hitches; and,
- How to Safely Put Up a Highline/Picketline for Your Horses.

Additional topics covered on CHA’s YouTube channel include: how to use fly spray properly, exercises on horseback to improve rider position, how to pony a horse, how to safely paste deworm your horse, half seat and two-point explained, how to safely hold your horse for the vet or farrier, walking lines in a jump course to figure out correct striding, how to safely adjust English stirrups and girth while mounted, how to perform a safety tack check, how to saddle and bridle your horse, how to fit a helmet, and much more.

All YouTube videos produced by the Certified Horsemanship Association are available free of charge for embedding on websites and sharing on social media platforms so that this information is shared to improve safety and proper horsemanship techniques within the horse industry.
