Certified Horsemanship Association Radio Show and Webinar Topic for April

(April 2014) Visit the Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) website to hear our April radio show on Pack and Trail Tips Defined – How to Train Your Horse to Hobbles, Picket Lines and Much More! Join us on April 24th for our webinar on Equine Educational Opportunities at Colleges and Universities. These can be listened to and viewed after they are live.

The Certified Horsemanship Association Radio Show is on Horses in the Morning on the third Tuesday of each month at 9 a.m. Eastern Time. Topics will be based on training riders on how to have safe and effective communication with their horses. Click here to listen during the live show or afterwards - http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/218/Horse_Radio_Network_Show.html

The Certified Horsemanship Association Webinar Series is held monthly with topics ranging from how to handle your taxes in an equine program, to overnight camping with your horses and mules and much more!

April Webinar on Equine Educational Opportunities at Colleges and Universities will be held on Thursday, April 24th at 12 p.m. ET.

Bob Coleman with the University of Kentucky and Amanda Love with West Texas A&M University will be conducting this webinar about equine university and college programs such as the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, equine degrees and courses, scholarship opportunities for students and many more! To register for the Webinar– visit http://cha-ahse.org/store/categories/CHA_Webinars/

The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the horse industry. CHA certifies instructors and trail guides, accredits equestrian facilities, publishes educational manuals, produces educational horsemanship DVDs and hosts regional and international conferences. For more information on the Certified Horsemanship Association, please visit www.CHA-ahse.org or call 859-259-3399. To find a certified horseback riding instructor or accredited equine facility near you visit www.CHAINstructors.com.
