CHA Region 9 Conference and Skills Workshop
June 11-12, 2016

(April 2016) – The Certified Horsemanship Association’s (CHA) Region 9 Conference takes place on June 11-12, 2016, at the Laramie County Community College in Cheyenne, Wyoming. New this year, a skills workshop focused on practice lessons to prepare for becoming certified as a riding instructor or for CHA Instructors to increase their level of certification. The Skills Workshop is offered Saturday. CHA Chief Executive Officer and Master Instructor Christy Landwehr is the Workshop Clinician.

“Come to the CHA Skills Workshop if you have never been certified by CHA before and want some tips on creating good lesson plans,” says Landwehr. “If you are already certified, attend this workshop to prepare for achieving a higher level of certification. It will be an interactive day with demonstrations from beginning to advanced within Western and English, including jumping.”

The CHA Region 9 Conference and Annual Business Meeting will be conducted Sunday, June 12. Presentations and demonstrations will cover Teaching Techniques both mounted and unmounted, Horse Industry Issues, Horse Training, Horse Care, Risk Management and More. The Saturday Evening Program includes entertainment, a silent auction, and a facility tour of Laramie County Community College.

CHA Region 9 serves Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, and Wyoming. CHA Instructors or anyone interested in becoming certified, as well as the horse owning public, are invited to participate on either or both days. Registration is required. Please visit www.CHA-ahse.org for more information or to register.
