Please Donate to the Certified Horsemanship Association International Conference Silent Auction

(July 2014) – The Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) International Conference will be held October 23 – 26, 2014 at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Kentucky. This event is open to the public and participants get to ride on school horses in the sessions! As part of this event, CHA does a silent auction to raise money for a scholarship fund that helps riding instructors just starting out be able to attend a certification clinic.

In exchange for your donation, CHA will list you in our conference program and on signage at the event. If you donate an item that retails for over $150, you will also get a free quarter page ad in our conference program. Please visit - https://cha-ahse.netlou-secure.com/product_images/uploaded_files/silent%20auction%20pledge%20form.pdf to download the form today and get your product/service in front of many riding instructors and equine facility managers! Thank you for your generous support.

CHA also has booth spaces available for vendors wanting to share their products/services with riding instructors and equine facility managers. Click here to find out more - https://cha-ahse.netlou-secure.com/product_images/uploaded_files/booth%20contract.pdf
