Certified Horsemanship Association's August Radio Show Features
APHA President Craig Wood and Youth Director Christine Henry Gillett; Wellpride Sponsors CHA's August Radio Show

(August 2017) – The Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) will feature guests representing the American Paint Horse Association (APHA), an educational alliance partner with CHA, on CHA's Radio Show with "Horses in the Morning" on August 15, 2017. The topic will be "The Past, Present, and Future of the Horse Industry." APHA's Acting President Craig Wood and APHA's Youth Director Christine Henry Gillett will be interviewed by CHA CEO Christy Landwehr and the show's founders, Glenn the Geek and Coach Jenn. In addition, the show will be sponsored by Wellpride, makers of high-quality fish oil for horses, and will feature an interview with Wellpride's co-founder Dr. Anne-Marie Chalmers. The show will air live at 9 a.m. Eastern Time on Tuesday, August 15, 2017. Those who can't listen live can catch the recorded version afterward on iTunes, HorsesintheMorning.com, through the Horse Radio Network mobile phone app, or on CHA's site at http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/218/Horse\_Radio\_Network\_Show.html.

Craig Wood, PhD, is the current Acting President for APHA. He was originally elected to the APHA Executive Committee in 2012. Wood was a professor at the University of Kentucky and has more than 40 years of experience in the horse industry, including as the APHA National Director since 2006. He has also served on the General Show & Contest, Ways & Means, and Regional Club committees, as well as the Advisory Panel to the Executive Committee. In Kentucky, Wood was associated with UK's Cooperative Extension, beginning in 1985 when he started working as the College of Agriculture's Extension horse specialist. A native of Texas, Wood received his PhD and Masters of Science from New Mexico State University and his Bachelor of Science degree from Texas Tech University.

Christine Henry Gillett of Fort Worth, Texas, is APHA's Director of Youth and Amateur Activities and Awards, as well as a CHA Certified Instructor at English Level 3 and Western Level 2 and CHA Board Member. As a volunteer, she has managed and worked at horse shows and events in the South connected to the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, Interscholastic Equestrian Association, American Quarter Horse Association, and the National Reining Horse Association. Gillett is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU) with a degree in Horse Science. During her tenure on the MTSU

Equestrian Team, she served as an event coordinator, vice president, and president for the team. Her passion within APHA and CHA is to help enhance the horse experience for all participants now and in the future and to provide youth education in the equine and agriculture industries.

Wellpride is this month's sponsor of the CHA Radio Show, with Anne-Marie Chalmers, PhD, on to talk about the benefits of supplementing horses with omega-3s using fish oil. Chalmers and her husband, Bo Martinsen, PhD, both who are omega-3 experts, founded Wellpride in 2003. For over a decade, Wellpride has been dedicated to producing the highest-quality fish oil for horses while focusing on the dose and freshness level needed to achieve results. Horses have succeeded on Wellpride at events of all kinds, including the Pan American Games, Breeder's Cup, Kentucky Derby, Dressage at Devon, and more. Clients have reported improvements to their horse's coat, skin, hooves, focus, mindset, gastrointestinal health, and much more while on Wellpride fish oil.
