Certified Horsemanship Association Offers More Videos on Horsemanship and Safety on CHA's YouTube Channel for Horse Industry Use

(December 2018) – The Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) has added more free educational videos to its YouTube Channel. CHA's channel features dozens of safety videos in its Safety Shorts playlist. To view the three to 10-minute videos, visit www.youtube.com/chainstructor or go to <http://cha.horse/store/pages/212/CHAHorsemanship-Videos.html>.

The topics of the new videos include:

- CHA in a Nutshell with CHA CEO Christy Landwehr
- Clipping Safely and Effectively with CHA CEO Christy Landwehr
- Danger Zones Around a Horse with Julie Goodnight
- Mounting and Dismounting Safely with Julie Goodnight

Past topics include: introducing fly spray and a fly mask to your horse, how to pony, how to lead safely, how to paste deworm, an explanation of jumping positions/seats, counting jump strides in a line of fences, adjusting stirrups and the girth while mounted, how to perform a safety tack check, fitting boots for your horse, correct riding position, and so much more.

CHA encourages the horse industry and the public to use these videos and to embed them on websites. CHA's videos help spread CHA's mission of safe, effective, and fun horsemanship.

CHA Instructors Change Lives Through Safe Experiences with Horses. The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the horse industry. CHA certifies instructors and trail guides, accredits equestrian facilities, publishes educational manuals, produces educational horsemanship DVDs and YouTube Safety shorts, and hosts regional and international conferences.
