Certified Horsemanship Association International Conference

September 20 – 23 at 5-Star Resort - Villas of Grand Cypress in Orlando

– Mark your calendars now and come to the Certified Horsemanship Association International Annual Conference to be held September 20 - 23, 2007 at The Grand Cypress Equestrian Center and the Villas of Grand Cypress in Orlando, Florida. The conference is open to the public and includes mounted workshops for participants, lessons on great performance horses from master level certified instructors, top veterinarians and trainers and much more. During the event there will also be an Equine Facilities Managers certification and a First Aid/CPR course through Equine U.

This event is the only equine conference in the country where the host site provides horses for riding and ground work experience with the experts, such as nationally known clinician Julie Goodnight who will be presenting

Horse Behavior and the Human Relationship, Show Ring Strategy and Presence and many more. Also speaking will be local hunter/jumper trainer John Dalziel on Jumping Dressage and Jumping Gymnastics and local reining champion Ken Najorka on Western Performance Patterns and Reining. Other topics include: pasture management, vaulting, gymkhana, colic, becoming a judge, trail encampment, double lunging, collection and extension, lateral movements, clips and clipping, drill team riding, showmanship, therapeutic riding lessons, horsemanship patterns, techniques for the tense rider and much more!

CHA is offering member pricing for this event for non-members that come as part of a group. Prices vary based on day rate or full rate which includes meals and lodging. Invite the whole family and come and play in Orlando with us this fall. The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the horse industry. CHA certifies instructors and trail guides, accredits equestrian facilities and provides support and educational resources. For more information on the Certified Horsemanship Association and to register for the annual conference, please visit <http://www.cha-ahse.org/conferences.htm>, email office@cha-ahse.org or call 800-399-0138.
