Certified Horsemanship Association Searching for an Executive Director

The Certified Horsemanship Association is moving to the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington at the end of January and is looking to hire an Executive Director in its new location.

The chosen applicant will have a proven track record of leadership, organizational development and fundraising. This position reports to the President and Personnel Committee, and is responsible for the organization's consistent achievement of its mission and financial objectives. He/she will develop the Organizational Plan, oversee all fiscal activities, and work closely with the Board of Directors and staff to implement the policies, plans, and programs of CHA.

Salary is based on qualifications and experience. More information and a detailed job description can be found at www.cha-ahse.org. Apply by 1/28/07 by sending a cover letter and resume to the Search Committee at PMullins37@aol.com. Certified Horsemanship Association is an equal opportunity employer.

The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the horse industry. CHA certifies instructors and trail guides, accredits equestrian facilities and provides support and educational resources.
