Now is the Perfect Time to Find a Summer Camp or Riding Lesson Facility Near You

Summer is just around the corner and parents will be looking for riding camps for their kids. Look no further. To find a summer camp, riding stable, trail ride program or instructor near you simply log onto the Certified Horsemanship Association online directory at www.CHAINstructors.com and go searching.

This comprehensive online searchable database contains all CHA certified riding instructors and CHA program member facilities throughout the United States, Canada and beyond. Anyone looking for a riding instructor or barn near them simply has to go to Advanced Search and then type in his/her city, state or province and all of the instructors and barns in the CHA database come up with an individual profile and contact information for each one.

Summer is also the time that high school and college students are looking for work. Visit <http://www.cha-ahse.org/jobs.htm> to find that perfect horse job for the summer at a CHA facility around North America.

The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the entire horse industry. CHA certifies instructors, trail guides, recreational vaulting coaches and barn managers, accredits equestrian facilities, publishes manuals and provides support and educational resources. For more information on the Certified Horsemanship Association, please visit www.cha-ahse.org, www.CHAinstructors.com or call toll free 800-399-0138.
