– The Certified Horsemanship Association has an extensive article database at <http://www.CHA-ahse.org/theinstructor.htm> that includes articles from riding instructors, horse trainers, equine lawyers, business managers, barn managers, vaulting coaches and trail guides for all horse owners and enthusiasts.

There are “On The Rail” question and answer segments, Tricks of the Trade and Pet Peeves Around the Barn, as well as “Incidentally Speaking” articles that describe an incident that occurred and then the analysis of what a person would do to help towards the goal of that incident not happening again. You will also find links to past online issues of The Instructor at this link.

The articles are available to you at no cost – simply credit the author and then print “Reprinted with permission by Certified Horsemanship Association – www.CHA-ahse.org. To find a certified riding instructor near you visit www.CHAINstructors.com” For permission to use an article and for photos to accompany the article, please email clandwehr@CHA-ahse.org today.
