PONCHA SPRINGS, Colo. April 21, 2010— Have you ever had an ad drop out at the last moment—or a space that didn't sell before printing deadline? Or has someone turned in a story that's just a little too short? Julie Goodnight—known for her “classic skills for a natural ride” clinics, her clear communication in print, and her RFD-TV show, Horse Master with Julie Goodnight—provides a tip each month for use when you, as an editor, need just a little more content or a great quip to fill out your magazine's advertising section. Tips may be edited for style, length and content. Content is provided free of charge. Here's a tip to help you when you're in a layout crunch . . .
