Certified Horsemanship Association Needs Quality Speakers for 2012 Conference

(December 2011) – The Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) International Conference is being held October 11 – 14, 2012 at Canyonview Equestrian Center and College in Silverton, Oregon. This event is open to the public and participants get to ride in sessions on great school horses!

CHA is now accepting speaker applications for lectures, hands-on horse demos that take place in a round pen or small arena and riding sessions where participants ride on school horses provided by the conference site. Canyonview has quality jumping, horsemanship, trail, dressage and even cutting horses and cows! Please contact Christy Landwehr at 720-857-9550 or clandwehr@CHA-ahse.org to find out more about speaking at the event and be prepared to send a biography and session description along with needs. Deadline is March 1, 2012 for all speaker applications.

For more information on the conference keep visiting http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/47/International_Conference.html as we will be adding to it the closer we get to the event. Hope you can join us next fall in Oregon!

The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the horse industry. CHA certifies instructors, vaulting coaches, barn managers, college coaches, drivers and trail guides; accredits equestrian facilities; publishes educational manuals and DVDs and hosts regional and international conferences.
