Certified Horsemanship Association Updates Websites

(June 2011) Summer is here and that means parents are finding the right summer camps and lessons for their children and perhaps for themselves. Look no further. To find a summer camp, riding stable, trail ride program or riding instructor near you simply log onto the Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) online directory at www.CHAinstructors.com and go searching. And if you are a riding instructor or equine facility manager and want to find out more about certification and site accreditation visit www.CHA-ahse.org .

The CHA website properties were recently updated so that finding a certification clinic near you is easy <http://cha-ahse.org/store/clinics.php?action=bylocation>, find a riding instructor or equine facility in which you can take riding lessons or board your horse at www.CHAINstructors.com and shop online for educational horsemanship manuals and DVDs at <http://cha-ahse.org/store/categories>. You can also visit http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/212/CHA_Horsemanship_DVDs.html to upload videos about horsemanship safety directly to your own websites. And finally if you want to become a member of CHA visit here to find out more about member benefits and how CHA can benefit you and your business - http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/22/Member_Benefits.html

Thanks for visiting our updated websites! The purpose of CHA is to promote excellence in safety and education for the benefit of the entire horse industry. CHA certifies riding instructors, trail guides, recreational vaulting coaches, driving instructors and barn managers, accredits equestrian facilities, publishes manuals and provides support and educational resources. For more information on the Certified Horsemanship Association, please visit www.CHA-ahse.org, www.CHAINstructors.com or call toll free 800-399-0138.
