Certified Horsemanship Association International Conference October 11 – 14, 2012 at Canyonview Equestrian College in Oregon

Plan on joining us for the Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) International Annual Conference on October 11 – 14, 2012 at Canyonview Equestrian College in Silverton, Oregon. This event is open to the public and participants get to ride on school horses in the sessions! Special day rates are available! There are great press discounts available as well. To find out more contact Christy Landwehr at clandwehr@CHA-ahse.org.

The conference is open to the public and includes mounted workshops for participants, lessons from master level certified instructors, veterinarians, horse trainers and much more. Some of the presenters and topics already set are:

- Julie Goodnight with HorseMaster TV
- Ren Bannerman from Canyonview with Working Cow Classes
- Patti Skipton from America Vaulting Association with Vaulting and Roman Riding
- Susan Xanthopoulos – The Research on Rider Biomechanics
- Anne Brzezicki from Middle Tennessee State University on Lengthening and Collecting Exercises
- Dawn Salazar from Oregon State University on Western Horsemanship Patterns
- Kim Meeder of Crystal Peaks Youth Ranch
- Scott Depaolo from Boy Scouts of America with Trail Skills
- JoAnne Young from Houghton College with Exercises to Improve Responsiveness/Balance
- And many more!
