Certified Horsemanship Association Needs Quality Speakers for 2015 Conference to be held October 22-24 in Amarillo, Texas

(January 2015) – The Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) International Conference is being held October 22 – 24, 2015 in Amarillo and Canyon, Texas, in conjunction with the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame and Museum and West Texas A&M University. This event is open to the public and participants get to ride in sessions on great school horses!

CHA is now accepting speaker applications for classroom style lectures, hands-on horse demos that take place in a round pen or small arena and riding sessions where participants ride on school horses provided by the conference site. West Texas A&M University is providing quality jumping, horsemanship, trail, and hunter and western pleasure horses! Please contact Christy Landwehr at 720-857-9550 or clandwehr@CHA-ahse.org to find out more about speaking at the event and be prepared to send a biography and session description(s) along with needs. Deadline is March 2, 2015 for all speaker applications.

Here is a list of all the speakers and their bios from last year so you can see the type of topics that work for our attendees which include riding instructors, barn managers and owners, and general horse enthusiasts - http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/294/2014_CHA_International_Conference_Speakers.html

For more information on the conference, including a promotional video, visit http://cha-ahse.org/store/pages/47/International_Conference.html, we will add speakers and sessions as we get closer to the event. Hope you can join us this fall in Texas!
